WOODROW WILSON

HIGH SCHOOL

VOLUME 74

3701 Willett Drive
Portsmouth, VA 23707

In the summer of 1992, Dr. Trumble, Superintendent, and the school board voted to convert Wilson to a middle school in 1993. So, with the eminent closure of Wilson ahead, this yearbook will aspire to depict "monumental" memories to capture the spirit and pride which are Woodrow Wilson High School. The staff dedicates this book to all Wilson Presidents — past, present, and future.

STUDENT LIFE

A day in the life of a Wilson High School student . . .

"Please stay tuned to Channel 1."

"Gotta piece of paper?" "Did we have homework?"

"Where's your pass?" "Test tomorrow!"

"Quiet!"

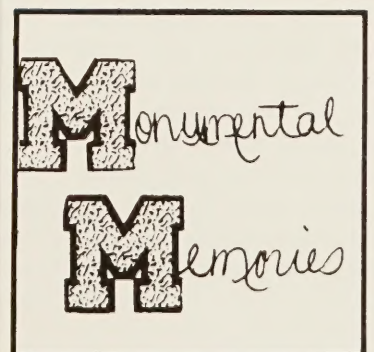

"Pourquoi?" "How many minutes 'til the bell rings?"

"B-R-I-A-N!"

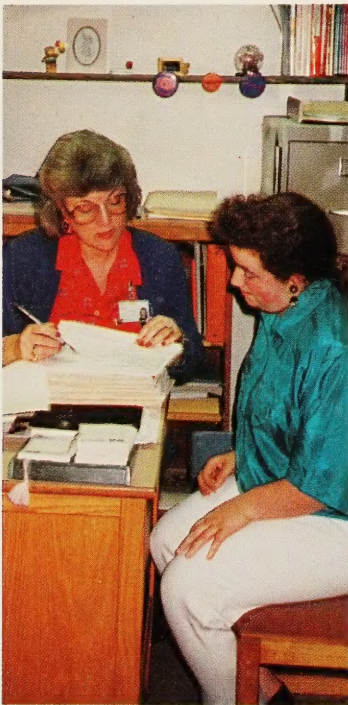

"What did she say?" "Is there a pep rally Friday?"

"Study your words for the week."

"T.G.I.F.!!!"

Creative Writing class is ready to tackle the yearbook.

Miss Palmer schedules Beth Jordan for 1992-1993.

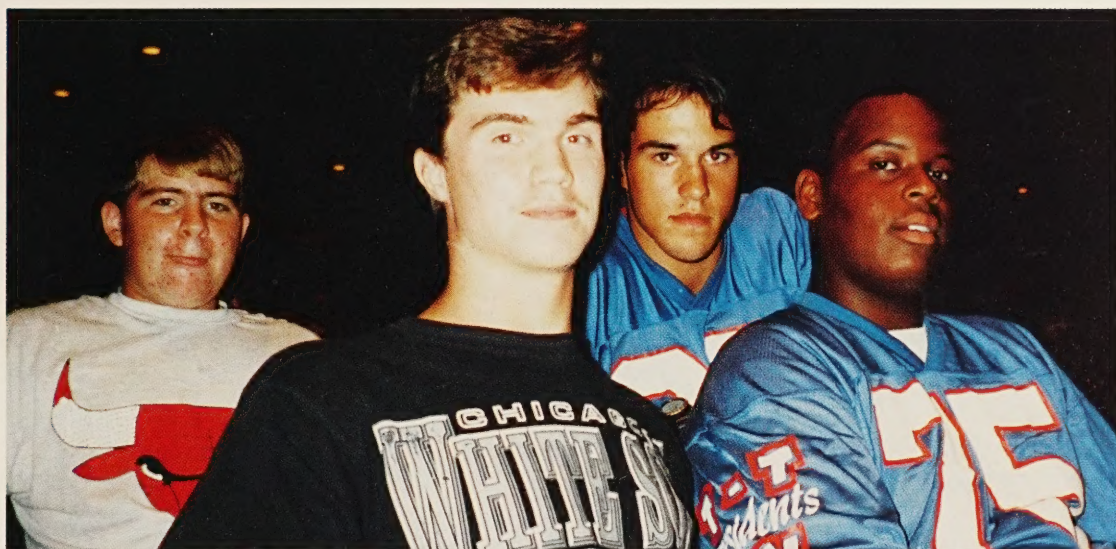

Varsity and JV Cheerleaders hang out together.

Mrs. Rauch's World History class smiles for the camera.

What a pep rally — we're sooo excited!

PRESIDENTS

Are Busy, Busy!!

Woodrow Wilson High School opened its doors for the 84th time this year. The first day was filled with the usual schedule changes and lost students trying to find their rooms. Three new principals took over this year. Mr. Urquhart took charge of the eighth grade. Two former Wilson teachers became part of the administrative staff. Mr. Hopkins and Mrs. Shepherd took over as principal and assistant principal, respectively.

However, the old favorites did remain. The Marching Presidents are still "steppin" under the leadership of Mr. Carver. The football team is still pounding its opponents, but they received new leadership. With the loss of former coach Darnell Moore, assistant coach, Joe Ladisic, took over. The cheerleaders are still at the games and the pep rallies, cheering the team onto victory.

Yearbook sales began the second week of school. The fact that this may be Wilson's final year provided motivation for all staff members. As the students left the school for their buses or car rides home, they are left with the memorable sign, "GO BIG BLUE," because Wilson High will always be a part of their lives.

Shamonda Davidson, Tameka Hicks and Darlene Difrischia show the spirit of J.V. Cheerleaders.

Shivawn Moore struts her stuff.

Lakisha Holt strikes a pose.

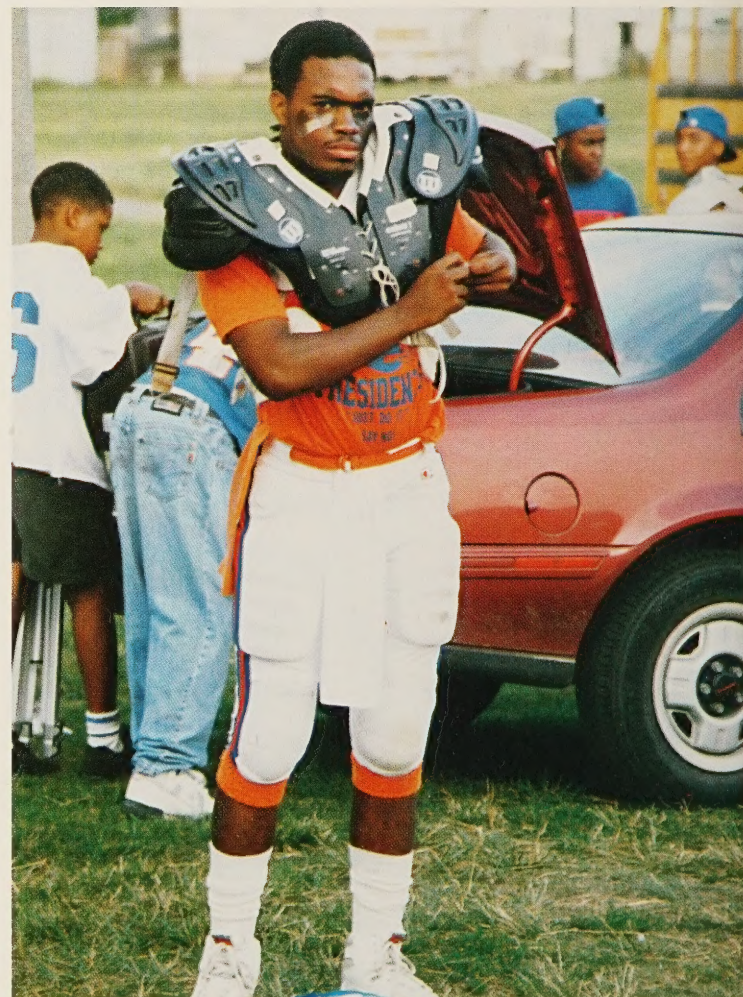

Mrs. Mixon loves her students.

Man, you caught me smiling!!

Dennis Strawther suits up.

The football team peps it up before the big game.

Edrika Oliver, Crystal Joyner, and Eboni Oliver are the Three Amigos.

Orange and Blue, Always Be True!

Mrs. Rauch's homeroom gets ready for the pep rally.

Prexies, Past and Present, Party!

The Homecoming Pep Rally was full of celebrating Prexies. The chorus sang several songs from the 60's. The drama club presented a musical skit in which they lip-synched a song dressed in bath robes and curlers in their hair. The marching Presidents thundered down the aisles as their music roared. Harvey Siegel, from the class of '67, talked about high school life in '67. The dance group "Twins and Co." performed. Then Shanté Holland did her "School Spirit" rap along with her dancers.

Each class nominated representatives: 8th grade — Laurie Madden, Robin Wooden, and Brandon Wiggins; Freshmen — Ancetra Crocker, Lertisha Brinkley, Tonee Oglesby, and Ronnie Shaw; Sophomores — Latoya Austin, Shawanna Jones, and Jason Lewis; Juniors — Tonya Standifer, Tawana Faulks, Dennis Strawther, and Dwayne Artis; Seniors — Katrice Turner, Marianne Jackson, Latrika Phelps, Tracey Bradshaw, and Todd Brooks.

The Mighty Presidents were in high spirits after scoring the first touchdown of the game. At half-time all the club and grade level representatives were presented. And finally, the highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, Tracey Bradshaw and King, Todd Brooks.

"Twins and Company" take a breather from dancing.

Homecoming guys "strike a pose"! Flag girls smile to support their team.

Candidates for Mr. and Miss Freshman shine!

Mrs. Gonder "pumpin' it up"!

Several contestants relax in the calm before the storm. (top)

Latoya Austin and Tawanda Faulks look marvelous. (bottom)

Homecoming Court candidates take time out to pose for the camera.

Orange and Blue, always be true.

Drama students perform "When I Was Your Age" for the Class of '67.

The football team gets jazzed up before the big homecoming game.

The crowning of Todd Brooks as the king.

The cheerleaders try to stay warm during the game.

Tracey Bradshaw looks queenly.

Cliff Carden watches intently from the sidelines.

Donté waits for a call from the coach.

Bruce Deloatch shoots the gap for a President first down.

Seniors

I can't believe it's finally here,
 It's finally my senior year.
 I've made it through both thick and thin,
 And classes that made me cringe.
 I've gotten through those boring days,
 Sleeping through them or in a haze.
 But now I'm at a turning point,
 It's time for me to get out of this joint.
 I'll be getting my diploma soon,
 I'll be marching to that graduation tune.
 Then I'll start my college days,
 And then again I'll be in a haze.
 But I'll never forget those high school years,
 And as the graduation day nears,
 I feel my childhood come to an end,
 And a new life start all over again.

Lorrie Rubino

We're finally seniors
 But we can't quit now
 Our lives are just beginning
 It's time to worry about GPA's
 And whether or not we're going to graduate
 Some of us will and others will not
 But that's apart of life —
 is it not?
 As we leave Wilson with tears
 of joy and sadness,
 We find that we have a lot of decisions to make
 As we wait for the big day
 to graduate.

Tracy Townsend

Proud Prexies

"We're Number One!"

Students work on an assignment in Mr. Littlefield's class.

"We've got the spirit!!"

Practicing for senior portraits.

"Senior elation!"

Class of '93 is the best!

Mr. Zinkl adjusts Jennifer Sanderlin's drape.

Seniors take time to show their senior spirit.

Dana Young, Tawanda White, Pepita Brown, and Lindy Lucas taking it easy!

Louis Andrews and Lindy Lucas are happy to attend the pep rally.

Donte Buskey and Tony Culpepper are glad to see this day finally arrive.

These girls are ready to begin their new life outside of Woodrow Wilson High School.

LOOK HOW WE'VE CHANGED!

Portsmouth High School was erected in 1908 on the corner of Washington and King Streets. The first graduating class, in 1910, consisted of 20 people. In 1919, Portsmouth High School became Washington Street School. In 1917, the building became inadequate, so construction of a new school was begun on the corner of High Street and Fourth Avenue. Since this building was erected during World War I, it was named after President Woodrow Wilson. Upon completion in 1919, many more students than anticipated entered the school, so many more rooms were added. The present day Wilson was completed in 1955, and the old building was renamed H.A. Hunt Junior High School. On the morning of May 6, 1946, Woodrow Wilson High School (the present day Hunt Jr. High) suffered severe damage from an early morning fire. Classes were moved to Barracks "A" at the Norfolk Naval Shipyard for the duration of the year. In 1947, classes resumed in the high school. In the fall of 1993, Woodrow Wilson High School will be moved to the present day Manor High School on Elmhurst Lane. Even though Wilson High School has occupied many different sites, the Prexie spirit has been continuous throughout the years.

Present day Harry Hunt Junior High School. Woodrow Wilson High School from 1919 through 1955.

After a fire damaged Wilson High School in 1946, students finished out the year at Barracks "A" at the Norfolk Naval Shipyard.

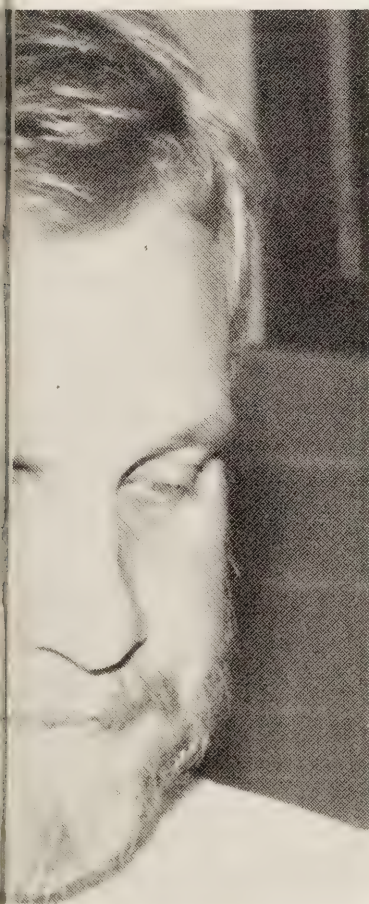

The construction is almost finished in 1955 on Wilson High School on Willett Drive.

ALMA MATER

Wilson High School, Alma Mater
Loud we sing thy praise.
All thy loyal sons and daughters
Hearts and voices raise.
May thy name e'er stir our memories
All our zeal inspire
And to bring to thee fresh laurels
Be our hearts' desire.

Stalwart sons will e'er revere thee
Proudly boast thy fame.
Should dishonor's threat come near thee
Thy just praise proclaim.
Through the ages we will cherish
And we will pledge anew
Honor, faith, and deep devotion
Wilson High to you.

Words by Robert L. Sweeney

DRAMA CLUB

This was an active year for Wilson's Drama Club. For the Christmas production, Dan-yelle Basham and Christine Peirce wrote a play based on O. Henry's story, "The Gift of the Magi". Not only did the club put on a performance for the spring of 1993, but they also attended Festival, a gathering of drama clubs from various high schools. At Festival, the Drama Club competed against the other high schools with plays. The Drama Club performed Im-promptu, a four character play.

FRENCH CLUB

A Busy Year!

The French Club exists to deepen the understanding and interest in the Francophone or French-speaking world. This world includes not only France, but other countries like Haiti, Switzerland, Morocco, the Ivory Coast and the province of Quebec.

In the fall, the club had two French college students as guest speakers and went on a field trip to "Le Charlieu", a French restaurant in Norfolk. In December they participated in French Christmas caroling. They also watched several French movies and enjoyed a trip to the Chrysler museum to view the impressionist art. During Foreign Language week in March, the French Club participated in many activities associated with that week.

The French Club is sponsored by Mrs. Cochrane.

FUTURE EDUCATORS OF AMERICA

Teachers-To-Be!

The Future Educators of America Club was organized at Wilson in the spring of 1992 by Mrs. Carolyn Smith, Ms. Gladys Arrington, and Mrs. Lee Ann Benson. The purpose is to interest students in the field of education and to provide some community service projects. Members tutored at John Tyler, visited the Autumn Care Nursing Home, and attended a regional conference in May. The FEA Club is underwritten by a grant from the National Education Association through the Virginia Education Association.

The sponsors are Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Benson.

(front to back) C. Cherry, T. Blow, L. Huffman, T. Blow, L. Williams, C. Slaughter, E. Oliver, D. Newberry, Mrs. Benson.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

THE FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA CLUB

Future Business Leaders of America is an organization that is open only to business education students. The co-curricular nature of FBLA, combining instruction, experience and activity, makes the organization an integral part of the business education program.

Monthly meetings were held every third Wednesday of each month, with the following student officers presiding: Lakisha Cherry, President; Shaunita Lassiter, Vice President; Tracy Townsend, Secretary; Angelena Stephenson, Treasurer; and Paula Brown, Reporter.

Various social activities were planned for the members this year, such as pizza parties, Christmas party, and a spring party. Fundraisers for the year included selling candy, donuts, calendars and other various items. They also adopted Maryview Pediatric wing.

Members attended the annual Fall Workshop on Saturday October 17 at Norfolk State University.

The FBLA MART is a store also operated by the FBLA. This MART, which was managed by Lakisha Cherry and Jamila Evans, sells school supplies and other student items.

FBLA students went to Reston, Virginia for their Spring Convention and Kings Dominion at the end of the year.

Mrs. Shirley Ferebee is head sponsor of the FBLA. She is assisted by Mrs. Cavinness, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Linyear, Mrs. Mobley and Mrs. Williams.

Tenisha Satterwhite and Mark Satterfield

Jamila and Lakisha man the MART!

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The Future Homemakers of America had a very busy year. In the fall the group had a fund raiser that would help to support the different projects they had planned for the year. Kelly Edwards and Michael Crawford represented FHA/HERO at homecoming. In December the club made Christmas stockings for Oasis, a homeless shelter. They also enjoyed a Christmas party in December.

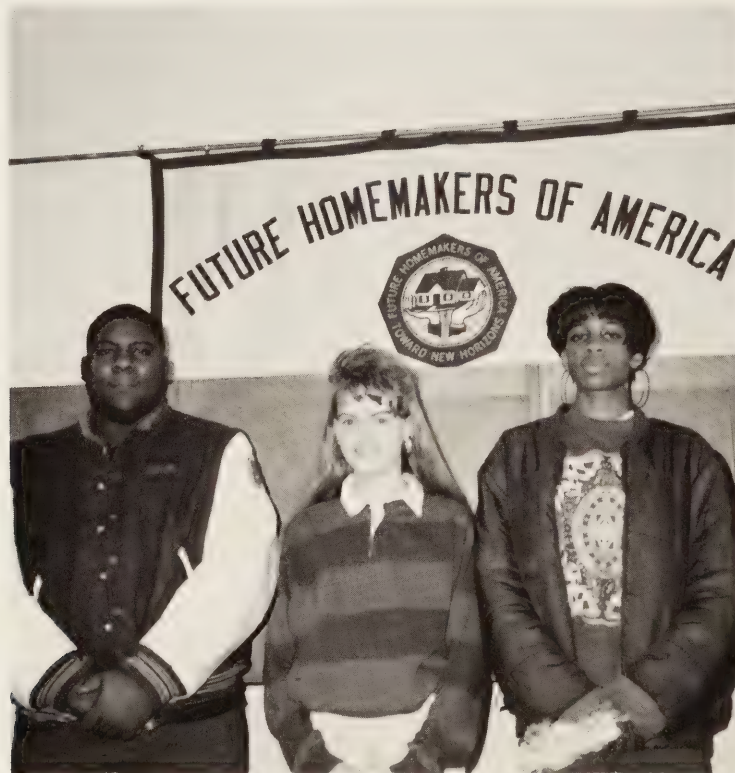

The third week in February was Vocational Week. FHA organized events for each of the days of the week. Those events included a breakfast for members and giving pencils to each teacher at Wilson with the chapter logo on it.

During the month of March, FHA had a guest speaker on recycling. During April the club went on a field trip to the Skippy Peanut Butter plant.

Finally, during the month of May, the club had a pizza party at which they recognized many outstanding members of the group.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society started off the year by electing new officers. Lorrie Rubino was elected President; Trudy Tam — Vice President; Beth Jordan — Secretary; Melinda Lewin — Treasurer; and Lisa Davenport — Historian. Michael Boone and Melinda Lewin were Mr. and Miss National Honor Society for Homecoming 1992. The National Honor Society participated in the North Pole Hot Line at City Hall in December. They also tutored students during the year who needed help in their studies.

In March, the National Honor Society inducted its new members for the 1993-1994 school year. A reception was held after the induction ceremony.

Buzzers Ready?

This year Wilson's PAC team tried a new approach to practicing for their matches. As a scrimmage match the four members of Wilson's student team played against four faculty members. The team captains, Lorrie Rubino, Beth Jordan, Trudy Tam, and Todd Tabor played against Mr. Fisher, Mrs. Gonder, Mrs. Wall, and Mrs. Durham. Although the team captains lost, it was a valuable experience.

The sponsor was Mrs. Silvasi.

STUDENT COUNCIL ASSOCIATION

During the 1992-1993 school year, the S.C.A. planned and executed many exciting activities. In September and October, several pep rallies were held, including the Homecoming and Alumni Homecoming pep rallies. The S.C.A. presented the football team with a "goody" box before the last game.

In November, the Student Council Association attended the regional S.C.A. meeting which was held in Suffolk. December was a very busy month for the group. They sponsored the Salvation Army canned food drive during the week of the seventh through the eleventh.

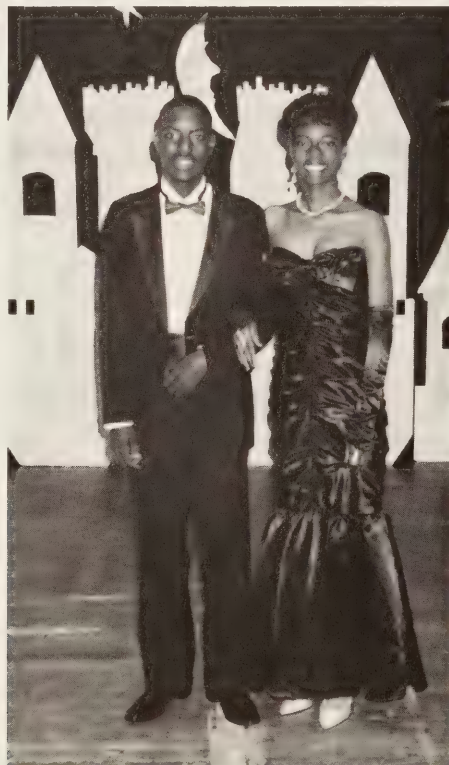

During the winter months, the S.C.A. encouraged the wrestling, basketball, and indoor track teams to do their best with signs and a pep rally. The same was done in the spring for the tennis, softball, and baseball teams.

In February, Wilson's S.C.A. hosted the city wide Student Council Association meeting. In May, they attended the state wide S.C.A. in Richmond.

The S.C.A. sponsor is Mrs. Burnes.

Transitions

Times are changing, and so did The Student. The journalism classes had a new sponsor this year. Mrs. Valdivieso took on the responsibilities of the school's newspaper in just her second year at Woodrow Wilson High School. She hoped to continue the winning tradition of The Student, which had won trophy class in competition for 2 years.

The editors for the year were Todd Tabor, Lorrie Rubino, Trudy Tam, Tomika Suiter, and Deborah Meacham. Mr. and Miss Journalism for Homecoming 1992 were Terry Gray and Trudy Tam.

WADA

Wilson Against Drugs and Alcohol is sponsored by Mrs. Bessie Durham. WADA had many projects lined up for the 1992-1993 school year, including the third annual After-Prom Party. They have tried to reach out and make a name for themselves in the community by providing community services throughout the year. One of these programs was SODA, in which John Tyler also participates. The group held the Great American Smoke Out in November and Save-A-Sweetheart in February. Both of these programs are aimed at those who smoke cigarettes. And finally, WADA once again participated in Prom Promise for the third year in a row, cutting down on alcohol use on Prom Night.

During WADA's Drug Awareness Week, Heather Huddle and Antonio Clifton were the winners of the "Best Dressed" competition.

Michelle Satterfield and Shawn Wright represented WADA at Homecoming.

Wilson High School Memories

Since 1908 Wilson's been standing tall.

This may be our last year, but we'll never fall.

Our teachers, students, and staff have done their best.

To make Woodrow Wilson High the very best.

Since Principal R.L. Sweeney broke ground for the new Wilson in July of '53,

Our mark was made, so let it be.

When blacks and whites were in the same classes in the year of '68,

We joined hands and made Wilson High one of the greats.

1926 was our first time being champions of the state.

We were known to the world as one of the best in the U.S. of A.

Many students were hurt when the decision to close us was made.

So to keep Wilson alive, we all bowed and prayed.

To the past and present Presidents who have left and are leaving Wilson, we're with you.

And we hope to see future Presidents graduate from Wilson, too.

We will miss the Wilson family, the history, and the cheers,

As we say good-bye to all eighty-five years.

La'Tisha,

God will provide you with the strength that is necessary for you to continue on, if you only soul search. Your father will provide you with whatever is within his human power to give, if you only ask. Your grandparents will provide you with all the wisdom that is essential in your development, if you only listen. Education is an instrumental part in fulfilling your destiny. When we hesitate to educate ourselves, we are in essence stagnating our potentialities. Proud is merely a summation of what each of us feels as you receive your certificate of accomplishment. Your mother will provide you with all the love and the above, if you only believe. Thank you, La'Tisha Ann Stewart. Don't ever stop striving to better yourself.

Lots of love,
Your Mom, Amanda

Lisa,

Congratulations! I am so proud of you and all you've done. Always strive to do your best in all you do. Be happy and spread sunshine wherever you go. May God bless you.

Love,
Mom

Tomika,

Congratulations
for a job well done!
We love you very much!

Love,
Mom and Tawanda

Andrea,

Words cannot fully express how proud I am to see you graduating. Keep pursuing your goals and don't let anything keep you from attaining them, especially yourself. May all your successes be filled with pleasure and all your dreams come true. Never, ever stop dreaming.

Love,
Dad

THE WILSON SPIRIT SHINES THROUGH!

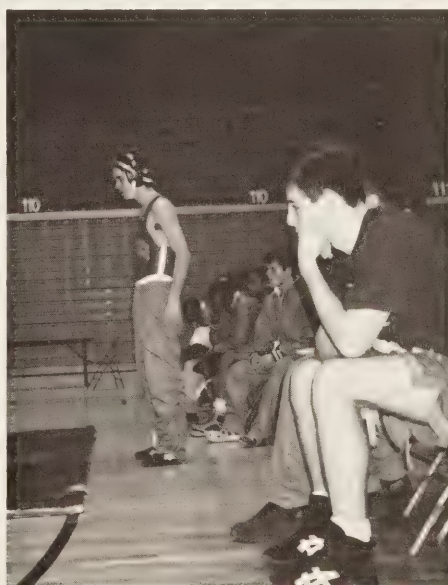

Blue Thunder reigns again!

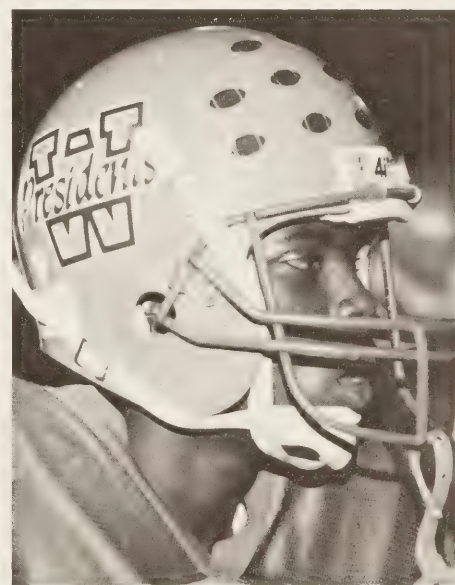

April Liverman, Takiya Smith, Shaniel Spruill, Jackie Porter, Tonya Standifer, and Joseph Garland cheer at a pep rally.

Mrs. Powell proclaims, "Isn't it wonderful to be in Presidential territory!"

Eric Pond and the other wrestlers look on anxiously during the Deep Creek match.

Which way did he go, which way did he go??

CRAZY CAPTIONS

"Which way to Bojangles?"

Drika makes her cake and gets to eat it, too.

"Sock it to me!"

That's why Santa was late this year!

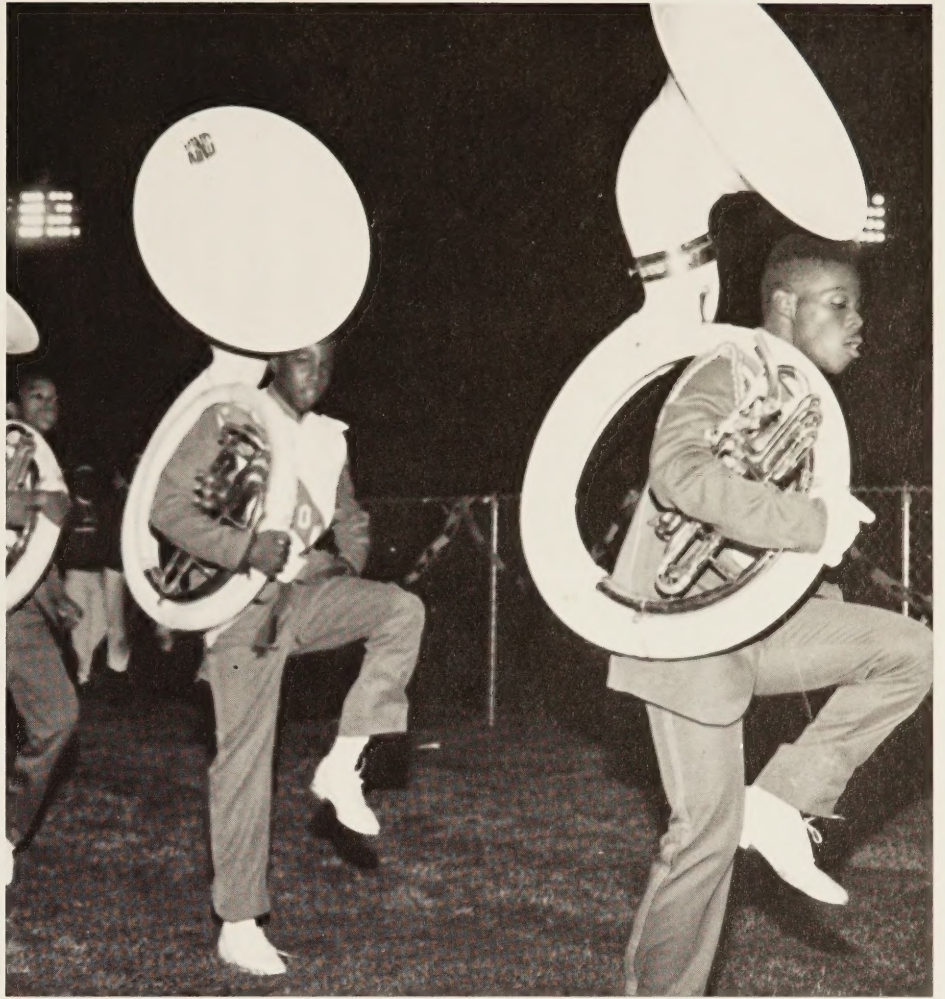

"Can we keep the clothes?"

SHOW OFFS

"I can fly, I can fly!"

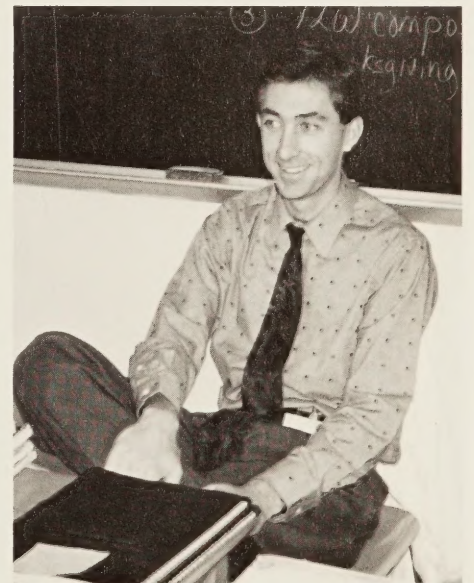

Hi-stepping Prexies!

Robert is giving us his "Mack Daddy" vibes.

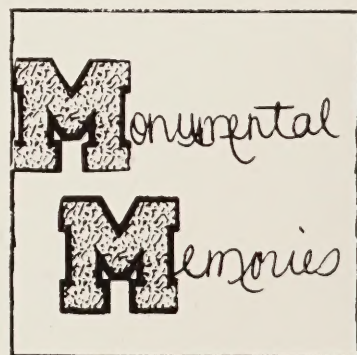

"Say cheese!"

Mr. Nestor poses for the next cover of GQ.

As of June 1993, Woodrow Wilson will cease to exist at 3701 Willett Drive. The School Board voted to move Wilson to the present-day site of Manor High School. It is sad to think that Wilson is moving from this building, but a building is just a building, no more than brick and mortar. It is the memories that count. As long as people remember the good times and the bad, Woodrow Wilson High School will always exist in the hearts of true Presidents. "Orange and Blue, always be true; Go, Presidents, Go!!!"
